Miriam has been interested in design, illustration, sculpture and fine arts since her youth. She decided to spend most of her time in such areas professionally. In the early 80's she started as a freelance creating thousands of textile designs to sell at the textile printing industry and wallpaper mills (1979 - 1985).

She evolved professionally as a Creative Design consultant for Lorber Industries, L&L, JCPenney, Victoria's Secret, Target and other L.A. area textile companies (1985-92), and later she spent 10 years as Head Textile Stylist for prints at Matchmaster Inc.

Ceramics has been always a passion for Miriam, and in 2003 she started a career as a ceramics Instructor at the Community Center of La Cañada Flintridge where, in 2006, she obtained the Ceramics Department Director responsibility, which she is holding at the present. Also from 2010 to 2014 she was in charge of the Mosaic Instruction at the same center.

Since 2014 Miriam is also a proud Member of the Design Committee for the City of La Cañada Flintridge.

Simultaneously she held the position of Ceramics Instructor at Pottery Village, Ventura Blvd. Studio City from 2011 to 2013.

She started her exhibits in 1993 at the Valley College Student Gallery, later at Lankershim Art Center, North Hollywood (2002), Millard Sheets Gallery, Pomona and No Ho Gallery, North
